

Artist: Robert Wyland

Robert Wyland was born in Michigan in 1956. He fell in love with the ocean after he visited California as a child. Robert Wyland started as a muralist. His first muraling project was the 100 Whaling Walls. He held the world record for the largest mural called Planet Ocean until 2015. His murals can be found all around the world. He still paints today and as a conservationalist, he strives to protect the environment.

Artist: Robert Wyland

Robert Wyland was born in Michigan in 1956. He fell in love with the ocean after he visited California as a child. Robert Wyland started as a muralist. His first muraling project was the 100 Whaling Walls. He held the world record for the largest mural called Planet Ocean until 2015. His murals can be found all around the world. He still paints today and as a conservationalist, he strives to protect the environment.

Artist: Robert Wyland

Robert Wyland was born in Michigan in 1956. He fell in love with the ocean after he visited California as a child. Robert Wyland started as a muralist. His first muraling project was the 100 Whaling Walls. He held the world record for the largest mural called Planet Ocean until 2015. His murals can be found all around the world. He still paints today and as a conservationalist, he strives to protect the environment.

Artist: Robert Wyland

Robert Wyland was born in Michigan in 1956. He fell in love with the ocean after he visited California as a child. Robert Wyland started as a muralist. His first muraling project was the 100 Whaling Walls. He held the world record for the largest mural called Planet Ocean until 2015. His murals can be found all around the world. He still paints today and as a conservationalist, he strives to protect the environment.

Artist: Robert Wyland

Robert Wyland was born in Michigan in 1956. He fell in love with the ocean after he visited California as a child. Robert Wyland started as a muralist. His first muraling project was the 100 Whaling Walls. He held the world record for the largest mural called Planet Ocean until 2015. His murals can be found all around the world. He still paints today and as a conservationalist, he strives to protect the environment.